

Edin^g 17th Dec^r 1856

Dear Sirs.

We enclose you our Account discharged, including the Bill for £45 - the Drawback on McLeir & Co's Goods, and also the Money paid to them; for which sums we enclose their discharged Account with Stamp, also our own with Stamp.

We also enclose you State of Account to this date, with Index of Morrisons Poems which have been sent to Mess^{rs} Chambers ^{to be enclosed} with the Goods of 3rd Inst, Morrisons Poems are completely out of Print, and will never again be reprinted, and you will also see from a Note enclosed to our Mr. William Whyte from Mr. Kennedy, the Publisher of Dr. McDonalds Hymns, that they will never again be reprinted.

Mess^{rs} Chambers inform us, that the Goods will be shipped in eight days from this time.

Waiting your further Orders.

We remain Dear Sir

Yours very truly

A. Wright

Mess^{rs} J. Dawson & Co
Pictou

My Dear

Macdonald's Gaelic Poems is quite out of print & I do not think the family will reprint - an estimate was taken but there is so much small type in it, that unless

From 1000 to 1500
were printed & wanted
not pay

Samuel
My dear Sir

Your Servant

Wm. Kenned

G. Whyte &

There were no sheets in eight days

Letter
W Whyte & Co
17 Dec 1856

