

Inverary, 16th / 1857

Dear Sir

I received your note in due time and will send you some money when I get my salary. Would you be kind enough to send by Coach on Monday six yards of the same paper as I got before. As it would be inconvenient to put it up safely the whole length you may cut it down the length into 3 equal parts. A letter directed 82 Cliza Street, Belfast, Co. Antrim will find my brother —

I remain yours very truly
