

To save the trouble of transmitting their value to you by letter, if you charge them to my father (Rev^d James Waddell), he will see that they are paid for. As we have been delayed for want of books, by answering immediately you will oblige

yours truly
W. H. Waddell

James Dawson Esq.

P.S. We should be very happy to get all our books from you but the communication to Halifax is much more direct & the carriage is cheaper
