My dear James Lawson Son
Sir

I wish you would send up to me, as soon as you can conveniently the following books. I enclose you what I suppose will cover the bills. I suppose you make a small deduction on a number of School books purchased at a time

I received the bills which you sent up, some time ago, and as soon as I could without inconvenience, enclosed the money, being faulty to discharge it, which has of course been done.

Please send

- 1 Edin. Acad. Greek Grammar
 - 1 do do " Extracts.
 - 1 Latin Dictionary
 - 1 do Ovid's Metamorphosis
- Dr A & B Black paid me the sum (12/6) due you for for the Day Book or Journal, which you sent him last week. He says it exactly suited him. Please place to his Credit to my Account. He said it was inconvenient for him to remit so shall a sum

Please enclose the bill

Yours J C A
