

Wm. M. G. G. G.

28th Janry 1859

Sir

your favour of 16th only came to hand today

I have what you say respecting the trusty and thank you for your kindly feelings up to this time I have not been able to pay but a small sum to one of my creditors after the liberal offer they had me which I should you you agreed to take £30⁰⁰ - In full

I have paid £15⁰⁰ - I am at this very time preparing number at a mill to make up

The Reminders I cannot Exactly say at what time I can get the money but I should think Early in ^{the} ensuing Spring after so much delays as we have had ^{I trust} that you will not do me so serious an injury as to pass the mortgage to another hand when I am striving to give the small balance you which I have no doubt can be done before you leave the providence. It would be in vain for me to ask the help of friends In such matters - will you have the kindness to drop me a note and say about what time

you expect to leave the providence I must fall on some plan to give as little trouble as possible Had it not been for lodley's misfortune I would be now clear of this bus-ness - I am Sir your truly

W. Campbell
