

Edinburgh, 29th January. 1857.

Messrs Dimsie & Son.

Pictou.

Dear Sirs,

Your favor of 9th inst. with accompanying Cheque for £9. 17, have just come to hand. I have placed this sum to the credit of your general acc with Messrs J & H.

As you are probably aware the Affairs of Messrs Johnston & Hunter are in course of being wound up and disposed of by Trustees. Both the Periodicals to which you refer - namely the "B. & F. Evangelical Review" & "News of Churches" have already been sold - the former to Messrs Wislet & Co London and the other to the Religious Tract Society of Scotland. I have communicated your instructions to both these parties however, so that you will not suffer any inconvenience or loss thro' the transference.

A statement of your current acc has already been dispatched, and I would urgently request your attention to it, in order to an immediate settlement.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours truly James Knox Trustee on J & H's Estate
