McGill Col
March 9/57

Dear Father,

Yours of 21st
Feb arrived a few days ago. It is very pining that you
receive so few of my letters. What becomes of them I
cannot conjecture.

Some of the matters
you now ask about
I have now twice
acknowledged.

With respect to your property, I would not sacrifice it, as the value of property
will I have no doubt rise. It would be prejudicial to be imprudent to force a sale which the Government is disapproved, as that
will much damp
people's hopes. etc

Indeed I have no
doubt would do well
for the business, provided he can give sufficient security. In event of not an-
ranging with him,
I would look for
some other person,
or adventure the stock
and govt - will of the business and receive
another offer up to a certain time; but it would be well

to inquire privately first,
to sell off the stock
in detail, would not do in any way.

I send news-
paper very account
of our Normal School opening & I
hope you this time
to have a little rest, as the only

After such a fair we have on the tapis (an evening meeting
of the contributors to the endowment) will be managed without much trouble on my part.

I with respect to copyrights, I forget to say that I should like to retain those of American poetry
in my own hands

We are all well
Winter has returned
with some warmth.
I hope what you
say as to friends
and Mr. Whites
is all of what I am much interested. Messrs Smith and Gerrit Hill.

They left for Peter
last week, and
carry almost present
of hundred sheep and a little from here
and there.

With sincere love,
and hope that all
may go on as we
visit with respect
to your and Mrs's
plans and success.
