

Maurice Belfast,
11th May, 1857.

My dear Sir, I duly received your note acknowledging the receipt of money sent to you two or three months ago. I was surprised to learn you had not received it earlier.
I left the money with a merchant in Charlestown, I think, in Feb. last, who was to forward it the next week, or soon as he could get Massachusetts funds.

I ordered 10 or 12 copies of Galli
Sabbath School Teachers' Assistant,
as explanatory of the Gospels. I should like they would be sent me to Mr. Parsons if you receive them. I ordered them about this time last year. I should like also to get Jacobus' notes on Saint John's Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles - I

Get the two former vols. from your London trail also.

If you have the following vols.
I should like you to send them the first opportunity - either directly by the first boat or send to this or near this part of the Islands, or to Mr. Edwards:

1. Reid's Dictionary of the English Language.
2. Chambers's Mensuration &
Geometry.
3. Chambers's first book of Algebra.
4. Chambers's Euclid.

I hope to be able to visit you in

The month of July, when I hope to see you. and believe me,
Yours very truly
Alex. McKay.
