

June 20th June 1857

Miss James Dowson & Son

I herewith send you per Miss James Payne the sum of fifty four pounds four shillings (£54.4.0) being the amount of your account lately sent for which please send me a receipt. I have arranged with one of the Colporteurs Mr. J. A. Board to call on his return from a distant mission. I will forward the order soon as I understand that you intend to remain a little longer at Peckham than you spoke of in your last.
I remain

Yours &c
John I. Baxter
