

Antigonish 7th July 1857

Mr Dawson Esq

Dear Sir

Yours of the 3<sup>d</sup> received as also a previous one, Mr Wilkins was here at our Court last month, and promised to hand you the 12/6 on his return home, I gave him a memo to that effect, and he must have forgotten it, probable his business has occupied his whole time, that small matters have slipped his memory, please present the enclosed order, which will remind Mr W of the affair

I am sorry to hear your health is poor, for without health, the enjoyment of this World is trifling I trust your journey may restore you, and that you may return to your Relations and Friends to enjoy many days, preparing for a better World

Yours &c
A. D. Harrington
