Dear Father

I wrote yesterday, but having to-day received yours of 18th Inst I shall send this in hope it may be in time for the mail.
I am very sorry to hear that your leg is not better; but I think you should nevertheless venture to come, Make two days of the journey to Wolfsburg, and if you do not see in the Eastern State, get some one to go down ^{with} you to the annual steamer to save worry and excitement in the hurry of getting off. Mr. Simmons, if you stay with her, will provide some one. Telegraph to me from Boston, and I shall arrange in some way for your coming.

I hope however that you will find a steamer on the route to Quebec to be for you as easy to leave, and then you will have no trouble and can bring all your things with you,

In my last I have sent a memo to J. C. about the books. I now enclose a note. Of course he may take his own way with it, as he has paid up the money.

Trusting this good will propose all your plans and give you a pleasant journey, I am yours affectionately W. D. D.

P.S. The books for volume have not yet arrived.
