

Calcutta Nov 27. 1857.

James Dawson Esq.

Dear Sir,

We are in receipt of your favor of the 12th. We do not see how the pills could be got as we look them out of No 2 Boxes.

Mr Hamilton says that he rec<sup>d</sup> a letter from Lissars stating that the maps had been sent to Liverpool addressed to us to be sent by Steamer in July last. We have never heard anything of them, Mr H. wrote Lissars that if the parcel does not turn up to duplicate the order and he will settle for them as soon as received. He will not pay for them until he hears of the parcel being rec<sup>d</sup> by Meale. Yrs Obedt
