Dear Father,

We were very glad to receive your telegram from Zurich, also George's

letter, and we trust that you have now acquired safety in

Putnam. Now

MS
to day
to into
Furniture

Letters arrived for you of last British mail, which I opened & ascertain'd if anything required attention. One is from Miss Curran, accepting your guarantee
on behalf of Stiles;
The other is from
Mr. , also accepting,
but stating that

You had omitted
to say for how long.
I enclose the copy
which they have sent - & show
you this.

The weather
has been fine,
and we are all well. I am quite recovered from my attack, and Margaret is still

as usual.

Please give our best wishes to Mrs & Miss Robin, and ask them to have the kindness to keep a mother's eye
on George's appearance, say to George that I shall be very glad to receive letters from him, and <sup>tell him</sup> to take care that he behaves very well.
The house seems quite lonely without you, and Mamma is quite in despair about marketing her. Trusting that you will find all our Boston friends well. Give our very best Mrs. Adams
