My Dear Sir,

I found myself unable to get out of town today - if therefore it suits Mr Dawson's Convenience to call with the Deputees tomorrow afternoon. I shall be glad to attend to them.

The foreman which they would need very readily get. If I should fail to secure the amt required by the time Mr Dawson calls; I would suggest the money being meanwhile placed in the Savings' Bank.

Yours faithfully
 Geo. W. Day
