Tuesday.

Dear Uncle Eddie.

This is not a real letter so, I am not going to use my best Sunday go-to-making paper -

So glad to get your scrap this morning. Sometimes I think you are a piggy but today I really think you are quite nice. Strange as it may seem.

I was just beginning to find the nice a week business rather and ^{myself} do you remember how the scheme fell through last spring. It quite amuses me when I think of it -

I do wish when you write, you would ^{post} write your letters so as I will get them on Tuesday, Thursday bad manners³ in Paul's St. h.

you need the tender care of a mother once more I'm convinced.

Please don't think I jolly
I'm sure I don't any way
I don't often laugh at you you foolish -

What picture are you having framed? ~~that~~ Surely not one of those snaps I sent.

Do tell me why you think the zoo is doing you good?

Don't mention it about the Present. _____

Soa's party ^{to} ~~where~~ went off with great éclat, I will tell you about it next time I write -

I must go now as I'm going for a walk with Naomi.

Did you ever see such an untidy letter? -

Lots & heaps & piles of love - and above all things do be absolutely proper in your apostles to me. good by - & fun.

S. W. A. P. (nit) Lois.

Cheer up, once
more + yet again
I have run out of big envelopes.
