July 27 / 10.

My Dear Edward.

I was so glad to get your letter this a.m. I was beginning to think that you had forgotten me.
but I will excuse you if you have been having it 94° in the shade.
It has been quite hot enough here, and it has never gone above 87°.
that is hot enough for me. Today it has been 84° - I find the only way to forget the heat is to work very hard - So this morning I washed a great thick dress, and was told I was crazy by mother, but washing the dress turned out to be a great success, so I'm feeling quite chirpy.

Eva & I have just finished a strenuous game of Tether Ball, and I am nearly melted.

Mother, Eva, <sup>OWEN</sup> Owen & myself are going to see the air ships tomorrow afternoon. Every body says they are simply wonderful - On Saturday a man went up in a dirigible balloon.
and when he got up about 1000 feet, he jumped out with a parashoot - he fell about 300<sup>4</sup> feet before the parachute opened which, every body said was most exciting - I am just longing to go up in one - (not a parachute an airship)

I do wish you could see them, you would be so interested - Don't you get a holiday on Friday (Dominion day)
over does! -

Eva may go down to notice any day now, and leave me alone

with mother - she has had a little cough and mother wants to get her away -

Dan in closing a little part of the Hotel, our room is marked with a x. I think it will be nice -

↳ I have not the least recollection of you ever having seen me
with my hair down

I think you must have been peering when you weren't supposed to have been - however I'm glad you remember exactly how long it is!

I do remember the sailing picnic, where you had to carry me ashore. I was so
'speered' that you would let me drop - and also the scrambled eggs they were good, but they 7.

should have been when you used the cream.

I remember the walk after lunch, it was quite fun - you were wearing your bedroom slippers do you remember? -

as for the day when I took you out to teach you painting - it makes me smile when I think of it - you deserved every bit of my nastiness I'm sorry you think of it now with the sensation of the 'creeps' - We really did have quite a lot of fun that summer.

I think the <sup>2</sup> funniest things of the season <sup>were</sup> (1) The night I asked you to come to tea at Grannie's, (2) the night when I caught us playing the harp, on G. M.'s gallery - ~~that~~ .....

I went to Majorie Mac's blind the other day - and had such a nice time. Harry has such heaps of lovely illustrations books, just the kind I like, so I simply glared over them. Then I turned a hat for Mary - she certainly seems perfectly happy -

I have written about 5- twelve page letters in the last three days.
I seem to be unable to make my epistles brief, which is a pity.

This is not supposed to be a letter, it was only meant for a scrawl, which you can tell by the writing.

I will write to you on Wednesday ("perhaps") and tell you all about the airships.

I don't suppose
I will see you now

11.

Till you "come to that,"
I am just longing for the time to come.

Edward Dearest don't work too hard in this hateful hot weather
you will make yourself so thin - And you don't look nice when you are too thin.

Oh! by the way you never let me know

When you are setting your holidays. Do tell me next time you write -

I must run & post this before it gets too late -

with love from
Lois J.
