My Very Dearest Edward.

Great and thrilling news!

"Mama" is a "Grand mawma"!

"me" an "Aunt" !!! -

+ "Ruth" a "Mamma" to a dandy little son!

Another piece of news Peter came home yesterday from I know not where.

Much to the joy of the family - the funny part of it was that Will^{2.} came down yesterday to breakfast - and said I dreamt last night that Peter was coming home today - you will see he is coming - ! - and at about 10 o'clock he walked "Pete"!

I have just finished reading "The Hosts of the Lord" - by A. Steel - Have you read it? it is very good - an Indian

Story. ? -

I have got to go out to a lunch party today & also a tea, with five or brides to be! I hate these affairs, it seems such a mad waste of time eating from 1.30 till about 3.30 and then rushing off to a tea party Moreover I shall make Eva go to all the teas this winter as she is Supposed to be budding fall.

I'm afraid I never told you Darling how very glad I was to see you, and how sweet of you ^{it was} to come - You're just the dearest soul in all the world, and of course you will get on, you can't help it!

I must stop after that.
Good bye + write soon to
