My Poor Darling Edward

What a terrible time you have had, I do wish I could be with you - How are your eyes - I'm afraid I never realized what danger you were in, and perhaps it was just as well - you see I had not heard from you for so long, that I thought you must have finished with Cobalt, and that you were probably quite safe in Toronto or Montreal -

You did not say if you had lost your trunk. I do think it was funny about my tie being preserved - If there is anything I can make you, please let me do it - I don't at present know exactly what you use and like out if you tell me perhaps I could make you something that would do -

The fire must have been just too terrible for words - I cannot imagine that you have been all through it, and its horrors, to think that you have been beside those charred remains of human beings - goodness! you poor dear you must feel upset after it all - I think your company should give you at least three weeks holiday -

This place is improving daily - I really have been having quite a gay time - quite a lot of tennis, which is improving greatly - (I don't mind telling you this - but please don't think me conceited).

I was invited to go with a lot of others over to the swimming bath at the manoir - it is a dandy open air salt water one - the water is a fine temperature - and you can stay in for ages -

We are going to play cricket today - last week we played base ball - and I was one of the star players, which greatly amused me - of course it was only because the others could not play - !!! -

Well dearest I must stop, and go and change - I do hope you are out of that beastly place by now -

Cheer up you will soon have your holidays -

With ever so much love to my poor old dear - from Lois
