

To Lois

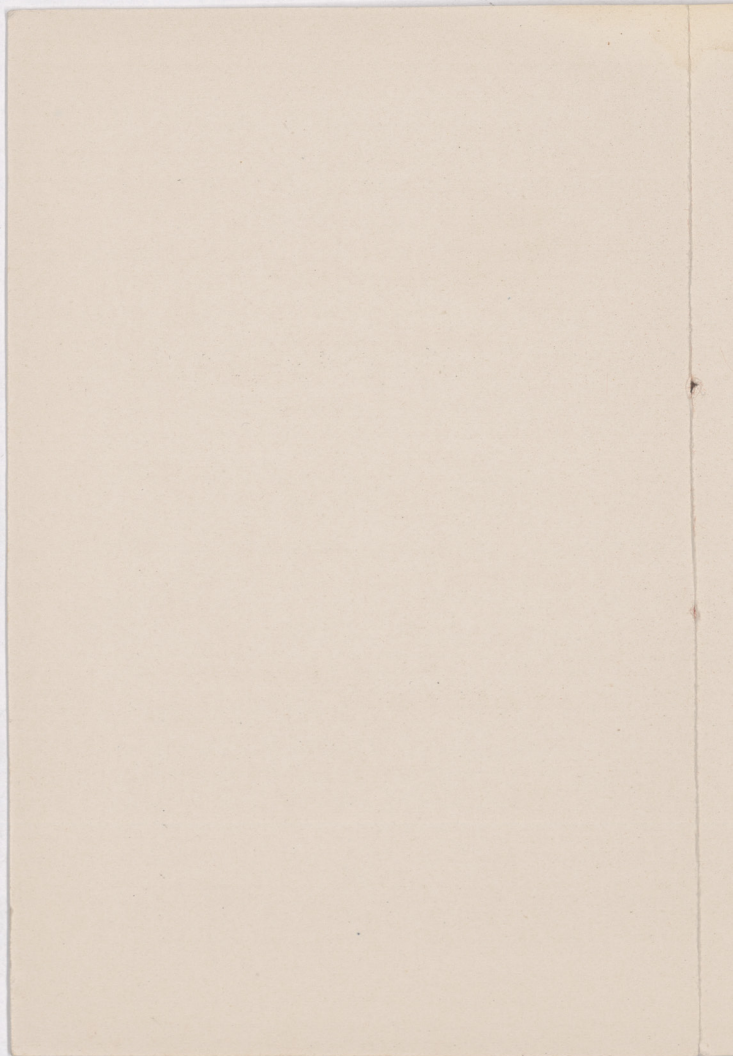

Christmas 1911

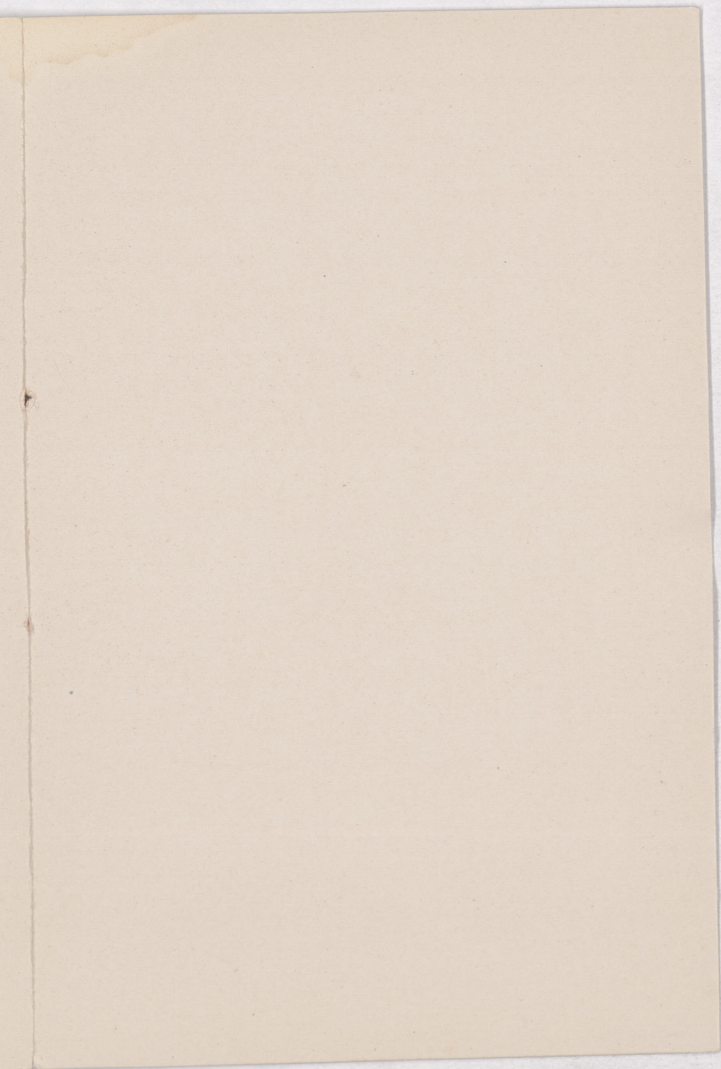

from

Edward.

My heart holds a great Wish for You, this Christmas
Day. ❀ I find no fitting phrase — but would You
know? ❀ ❀ Would You understand?
Let me, then, translate my Wish into something more than speech; let my part
be to serve You wherever opportunity may be; however need may demand. For
it is in kindly Service, simply rendered,
that Friend best speaks to Friend. ❀
❀❀❀❀ And as Deed gives tongue to
Thought, in way more sure than Word,
my Wish shall stand before You — living, vital, real. ❀❀❀❀❀❀❀❀❀❀ ❀❀❀❀❀❀❀ And seeing, You shall know; and knowing, You shall understand. May the Christmas
PeaCe abide with You — always!

May Cromwell Low.

A Wish Beyond
:♥ Mere Word :♥

10

ERNEST NISSEN, LONDON

PRINTED IN SWITZERLAND
BY 1882

E. P. DUTTON & CO., NEW YORK

