August 16th/12.

Dearest Edward.

It has poured steadily since this morning, all the mountains are hidden in clouds —

We spent the morning sitting about for a while, then I scuttled for a bit in my sketch book, and at 12.30 I had the great excitement of getting 3 letters from you — darling you do not know how I long for letters, the days seem so long — you seem to have had quite a stay in Sherbrooke. Won't it be nice for you to see Dr. Anton?

I wish I could hear you discussing Bermuda as a honeymoon resort. do find out all about the sister or aunt who has the rooms, I think that we would probably be happier at some place, where we knew no one, and no one knew us - It is terrible the way you can always spot brides & grooms, we see so many of them at the hotels, and you can always tell them, I do hope that we will not be spotted, but of course we will, <sup>but</sup> we should have a fairly settled look on by now, though!!

I met Dorothy Primrose here today she is on her way to the coast with Dr & Mrs Montigambert -

After lunch I sat and listened to a lady playing the violin, she plays exquisitely - then I had a long conversation with a lady from Cleveland, who told me all about her son, a prospector, he was in Cobalt through the fire, his name is Jackson, I wonder if you ever came across him -

Ruth and Ted have gone for a walk in the rain, I stayed in as I have a little cold and rheumatism -

Darling, each day is a year now I am getting desperate & wish I did not have to stay over in Winnipeg. Can't you write to me and your mother and say that I really must not stay for more than a day, that you think it very very urgently necessary for me to get back. Edward please do this, you really don't know the desperate state I am getting to - I cried in my room last night, just for sheer loneliness for you - It is just wretched at present being neither one thing or another, and not even having you -

I must get some school prospectuses to send Con! I'm so glad it's a boy - little girls are fearfully dull -

Sweetheart I do not know what to say, but I love you, and want to come back and try and make you happy, I wonder if I will be able to?

your Love
