My dearest Son

I have put in my tender on the two air compressors for the Intercolonial and I hope that the fates are with us. About Tuesday of next week I expect to come up here again and go over the bids with Purchasing Agent.

In the meantime there is absolutely nothing doing. Things are practically at a standstill. There is just as much likelihood of the Company laying off men as there was when I started for my holiday. It is nice and cool here and I am looking forward to having you back with me.

This is just a scrap before train time & I must go now.

With best love
Edward.
