My dearest Lois

I have just received your letter of Sunday. You have been treating me better than I have you in the matter of letters.

I am off to Toronto tonight and may go from there to N.Y. in connection with Shell business. I spent Monday in Sherbrooke, Tuesday in Ottawa, Wednesday in Quebec, today Thursday in Sherbrooke and will spend the last half of tomorrow in Toronto. After that I don't know where I will go.

So you see I am quite busy and taking advantage of your absence to run about a little.

I must run now as it is a quarter to ten and I have not been home to tea yet.

Do you know the address of that maid Mary Callaghan or some such name. There are two letters and an express parcel at home for her.

Will enjoy yourself dear dd Lois. I'm afraid I can't go to Winnipeg now but never mind I'll get a holiday sometime.

With piles of love to you and the baby
Yours affectly
Edward.

All your biscuits
and candy and needles and thread and locket are daily and nightly appreciated and remind me of my dear little wife and children and home but are not a perfect cure for loneliness. I simply can't enjoy myself
