My dearest Edward.

I wrote to you the other day but did not post it, as it was the first grumpy letter I have written you. But you can have it when you come back. I am so glad to have your letter today stating your plans - A week from Tuesday seems, ever so far away yet - Alice Anne & myself will all be waiting to shower you with cream puffs or something equally delightful when you return, we will be so glad to see you. I am thoroughly tired of having to husband. But in a way it has been a good idea having you and John away. As I have accomplished, untold achievements without too much effort on my part — I expect you to be very appreciative of all my efforts, no criticisms!

 I want you just to come back and sink into a comfortable home, appreciate the good points — and let the others go to the devil, even if sometimes they annoy. —

Alice was thrilled when I told her, when she could expect John, though she was sorry he would not be here for her birthday.

3.

Try to make your arrival in the evening, if possible and do not be late for the event.

Gordon has been in town this week at the Medical Convention - He came
- to see me today - I was very glad to see him - He is always so cheery - He brought my bushes, which I left at Oliver's when there - He did not stay long, as he seemed to be very busy and had numerous appointments.

He seemed to have been greatly impressed by a wonderful speech made by a
Sir Berkeley M. of Leeds Esq.

And very disgusted with his old friends the boys. thought - they spoke dreadfully. He is coming in in ten days to have that operation in his nose and may bring Olive with him -

After Gordon left - I went over to inspect a little private dancing class - at Victoria Hall, which I am sending Alice to -

I think by the end of next week, I should have all my settling finished, I have been as quick as possible as I want to have a nice time with you when you get back. I really think that you will enjoy your home. You see it is about 5 months, since we lived together, and people are beginning to notice that I am ^{not} wearing my rips! So it is high time you came back.

I must say I experience a sense of comfort every day to be back in my home with all my nice things around me.

Eva is still in bed, so we do not see each other which is very stupid -

Baby is very funny - I was playing for Alice & Anne this afternoon and they were Singing their ⁶ little songs. Anne apparently was enjoying herself greatly. I asked her if she wanted to go to bed - much to my surprise - she very quickly replied "no! no!"

Eva + Tim sent me some lovely roses for my wedding day. I intended writing to you but did not know where you were? Alice said to me. "You know mother, I was at your wedding, I was just a little fairy then sitting under an orange blossom on your veil, I was just "tap you" you know - I had something special in a bottle to make me like that.

Well dear I must go and see what has happened to my dinner

With a great deal of love - and my love and best wishes to all your dear family

Love
