My dearest Sis

I am doubling back to Trail today leaving here at about 2 o'clock (a couple of hours late) and going to Kootenay Landing where I take a steamer to Nelson. Then tomorrow morning I go to Trail.

Have just wired Dad "Bon voyage a merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year" addressing my wire to S.S. Montcalm St John.

I hope it reaches them. I have

Cranbrook, B.C.,

Sent a confirmation with a letter of B of M. London England.

Last night went to see "Harold Lloyd" in something funny. Have had a couple of nice days with my friend Ed Montgomery + his wife. He is Superintendent of the Sullivan Mine at Kimberley. Now I'm going to see Bruce Ritchie + the Archibalds at Trail.

Nothing much of interest to tell you. It is snowing hard. [at Vancouver 2 or 3 days ago I picked golden glow in the garden]

I am trying to lay my plans to spend Sunday in Winnipeg, and to get back to Montreal on Friday morning to buy you that Christmas present!

I hope you and the children are well and happy and are not forgetting their Daddy.

With love to you all
Your affect hubby
Edward.
