My dear Edward -

A beautiful day today, I have been on the beach all morning with the children - Some beautiful steamers passed up -

I am going to play golf after lunch I think - then I take baby to the hotel for tea & after that the Whites are coming & have evening tea here. I hope that they will enjoy it -

I went down to the Boule paying the extra - as they are also right next a number, where they could sit - So I engaged the large room for a week & if not what they want they can get smaller rooms at end of week - but if they wish the big rooms for the two weeks they had better write - ~~for~~ I fear that this is rather huddled, but Bill is willing to take report office.

Rock last night - They had no other rooms available but the 2 sets you ^{saw} ^{smallish ones} except two ^{smallish ones} a dining, no bath room in connection - they were both smallish rooms but had sea view to east.

I thought that there was no comparison between ^{the big} ^{rooms.} ^{+ smaller ones.}

The prices were $60.00 for 3 people per week (small rooms) or ~~$72.00~~ ^{more} ^{for} ^{big} ^{rooms} ^{with} ^{bath} ^{room} ^{between} ^{and} ^{the} ^{big} ^{rooms} with bath room between - $72.00 for big rooms

I thought for the difference of twelve dollars a week that it was well worth

I hope that you are well - I received the letter yesterday, in which you displayed considerable ground - about Karp being invited to be comfortable at Tins - You poor old dear I knew you were fond of your own home, but I never realized to what an extent before. It is only for a short time dear. So perhaps by now, you have got a little bit accustomed to it. I hope so, I hate to think of your being miserable old top -

I had a terribly funny experience last night, but as my letters are perused at the office, I had better not write it!!!

With love dear - I wish you were here. affectionately Eds.
