Wednesday.

My dearest Edward

Just received your nice letter - I am so glad that you really enjoyed your week-end. I certainly did. Nice of you to write to Clare -

The Whites had supper here last night, they seemed to enjoy it - I took them to the beach afterwards & then we walked up through bushes sat on her veranda for a little - and then went down to the hotel - where who behaved very nicely - Alfred Paine & Ned there are very nice boys, the only thing that struck me as being fairly odd - was that Alfred Paine is 30 like Gordon! of course I did not mention this to the party! -

A large German hydroplane arrived here this morning, it landed on the sand bar in Colter's beach, Alice & I got out at 11, & hired their excitement were taken on board. I am wondering if I will go & take her to the house & get taken for a ride! I wish I could

We went to the dancing hall to watch Ed Charles & Mary White dance - incidentally the Judge & myself had one or two. Mrs White had a headache so did not dance but watched us -

Mrs Paton, Mrs Blue, Alfred Penkale, Ned Hume, & Andrew arrived last night - I took them up to the club, & gave them cold drinks, and then brought them back & showed them my house, they seemed very interested in the children -

too "skewed" ⁴!

I am taking Bill, Alice, ~~Hebe~~ & Patricia out for tea this afternoon hope it will be a nice little picnic. Bill is enjoying himself & is very nice - He has cut the edge of the path, & put ferns in my pots etc. The place looks much more shipshape.

I will try & discipline the children, they are always naughty when Will is about, I don't know what he does to them! -

I have received a nice parcel of magazines today, I wonder if you sent them? Very nice

Thank you then.

It is very warm today, South Wind - I think I will have to go for a swim - I hope that you are not being scorched in town.

X X X X X X These are Pisses sent by Ann^{Ann} who is just going to the beach - "I want my dear dear Daddy to come back the next day" - she says

Well darling I ~~was~~
