

416 Roslyn Ave.
Sunday Nov 25/23.

My dear Boy

I hardly think that this will catch you at Nelson It should have been posted yesterday, but I did not seem to have a minute —

One month for today is Christmas & Autumn is gone?
We are in the middle of a tremendous snow storm, everything is white — & the the children are thrilled

The trees look² very beautiful.
Alice is staying with Eva for the weekend, which is nice for her & makes the house quiet for me - So I have been a little lazy this morning -

I went to see the famous "Scaramouche" last night a moving picture. It was very good - But a little too blood thirsty for me all about the French Revolution.
It was long, & was certainly well - You and I were invited The Stearns & her today, but I do think I will go -

Tomorrow night Bar is having a dinner party. It is as if it is his birthday, I am the "Wife" - Cooper partner, I don't think I should be - but I believe he is very solicitous & jolly. So I ~~hope~~ hope we are to be present in the little alcove at a table by ourselves.

Mrs Lodge says "My Mrs Winslow Mr Winslow will be losing you altogether if he does not come back soon!" - You having such a gay time -

My personal opinion is that you are not worried about me at all - that you are having a pretty good time & not hurrying in the slightest - If you feel at all as I do, you simply could not have stayed away so long.
I have got to the point where I try to forget about you as I feel I may snaps if I think about you too much Edward my own darling I love you come home - Our home is lonely without you -
