My dearest Lois

At last I seem to be bound again for civilization but this letter cannot reach you until next Saturday which seems a very long time.

Walter Griffith and I have just spent practically a week at the Premier Mine - as there was no quicker way of getting out.

It is rainy and cold today with a strong head wind that

My dearest just at last I seem to be back again for a week but unfortunately of course this letter cannot reach you until next Saturday which seems a long time but I hope to be back at the end of the week at least I hope so I am getting a new job at the bank and I shall be back with you in a few days

would remind you of the mid-Atlantic.
I have run out of descriptive language. There is nothing to tell except that I love you and am most anxious to be back with you once more. Remember I have not seen any letters since May 11th, so I have 'nt the faintest idea how things are going along at home or at the office.

I hope though that everything is well and that I shall be revived by some nice letters on my arrival at Vancouver Best love to you dear and to the children Yrs affect.^{ly} Edward.
