Monday (Bank Holiday)
7th August 1939

My dear Lois

I have just had a very good Sunday with Aunt Charlotte.

Leaving here at about noon on Saturday I was met by Aunt Charlotte and Key at the Station at Nottingham at about 3³⁰. Had Tea + dinner at Wingfield House and a very good sleep in the four-poster in the corner

Today we go to Vincent Massup for the day. If weather permits we may play tennis or golf but more of this later. ^(We drive out by rented car) Tomorrow we drive out to Woolwich Arsenal at 9³⁰

My plan was adopted for our first meeting and it worked well.

I hope all goes well with you dear. Best love to you and the children + to Mother Yours affectionately Edward

room nearest the bath.

Found Aunt Charlotte looking better than I had seen her for years.

On Sunday morning we went to the Communion service at 11 o'clock - ~~monday~~ Sunday afternoon was spent strolling about the garden and the fields both front and back and then at six Aunt Charlotte + Key drove me to the station and I got back to the Mansions at about 10.
