

St Agatha des Tuarts
June 23rd/07

Dearest - Lois & Evr - you run along the usual track till it seems to have no end, & then the hour strikes, & the change comes - your hour seems to have struck & off you are, from the sufflings & oppressions - of the elders - I hope you will have a lovely time, & get your little house in charming order, & give yr little maid of all work an easy time, & eat & drink & be merry your three selves Evr must breathe regularly & sleep in Clare's room on her flat-back. & be careful only to bathe in good daylight short-measure. Lois must rest her weary brain & grow stately - & read a bit of the good book to her family every morning - As to the "man of the house" he will have so much to do - that a bit of not - be made for him - But - he sh^d begin each morning by eating at least - two Eggs & I w^d like him to play golf he shall have clubs a whole set - if he does. I wrote to Tucky to get Seim to go over the punt & put it in good shape. he has not - well might see to it ^{at once} - ~~Traverse~~ patching was not the right thing at all - Let us know what Seim says. I believe puntibus c^d be made good if not - might ask about a run on - but - you w^d not get it too very late - of course father expects Will to send him a report - about all the outside matters on the Estate - I hope the flowers arrived all right, & have travelled well.

With love to all three
 The family is now like this

B.S.
