Dear Mrs. Winslow-Spragge:

Thank you for your note of 6 November concerning the pictures, and the enclosed check in the amount of $100. for application to the revolving fund. I believe a formal receipt will issue to you in due course from the finance office of the University.

I also wish to acknowledge your gift of the copy of your father's song "The Man of Mentone" 2 pp. and of the two color prints of one of your rock paintings. These three items have been added to Accession 1377, by which number they can be readily retrieved.

When you have had time and opportunity to examine the additional letters, do let me know.

Kindest regards and with appreciation.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "John Andreassen". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large loop at the end of the last name.
