

Dear Mr. Andreason - Mailed Feb 2nd / 77 -

I have just completed going through all the pages of the last guides you brought me - and I have found many interesting little items - you are really a wonder to have got all these many and varied bits of information arranged in such perfect order -

In looking through G. M. D's list of poems - I could not find listed one of his best ones, which has been printed ~~a number of~~ ^{quite} ~~often~~ ^{often}, this being "Life is a bubble on the Sea" - perhaps I did not look carefully enough? and in the Worthington Papers accession No 479 by Wendy McKee - Appendix II I think that the name listed as "Furwell", should be "Farwell", this I say because when I lived in Sherbrooke, there was a well known man by the name of "Farwell", but I have heard the name "Furwell" - but of course I could be wrong -

I am enclosing several newspaper cuttings, which if you consider them worth ~~having~~ ^{keeping}, you ~~can~~ ^{may} ~~keep~~ ^{have} them - Two are to do with the Carpenter Shell Collector, and the others ^{are} ~~are~~ ^{concerning} ~~concerning~~ Conrad & Eric Harrington

* ~~are~~ Grandsons of B. J. Harrington -

I enjoyed my afternoon with you so much, and I thought it was ~~very~~ ^{very} kind of you to look after me - ~~It~~ ^{It} just has certainly undertaken a very big & difficult piece of work, but it does not appear to worry him and I am sure that he will do it well - I would always be glad to do anything to help him - & certainly glad to see him, if he cared to come up. ^{some morning as he}

* B. J. Harrington & his wife Anna had 5 grandsons - the above two - & two who live in Salmon Arm B.C. + ^{all} ~~the~~ ^{are} the sons of Bernard Jr. - their names are Bernard Lee Harrington - & David Harrington - the fifth ^{grandson} is Edward Harrington Quirk - Spragg, my son, who lives in Almonte ^{with}

I thought the B. J. Harrington exhibit was very ^{well} ~~well~~ done & I was very glad ^{you} ~~you~~ took me to see it

Thank you for all your thoughtfulness, and with every good wish
V. Sincerely
S. L. S.
