

THE WOODSTOCK
WOODSTOCK VERMONT

May 6th / 10

Letters are quite clearing Air -
some K. stick continue to send pleasant
the has taken Indy to the of course by Hillier, she came with a Mrs
to bring - & he
to put to the Glen - he has most mentioned about it - nor has head - nor has pieces here
I will
Dear Mr. Mother

very glad to have you, when I am away from you as you from me you seem to vanish in a more complete way than the others - you are more self contain ed, & leave less track behind.

It is good to know the singing was so satisfactory - Education is apt to cause large bills but such bills are more con futable to pay, than those of mere fashion. It wd have been a pity not to train your voice when it seems so good, & it certainly will be a great pleas ure to us all. I hope you make the play your accomplishment as much as possible, it is such good practice for her & will soon take away the nervous ness, she still suffers from.

Your weather is much the same as ours - It rained quite fiercely here from about 7 of last night - till breakfast time

I hope that Jean will keep all the measles to herself - I was sorry to hear that but Amos was still a great deal of an invalid.
In fact I thought - from what I heard that he ceases not getting back to health as had been hoped. ...

As to letters I did not mention an exact date - I think I said about 12th to 15th for it is stupid to be bound to a day, & I feel things might occur to alter your plans - If you are well & the weather not hot in town, you w^d be better not to go too early - & to stay later if we find it possible - I also engaged the room for one, & perhaps two - I thought I should give the letter - but it does not greatly matter, for Alice is not very exacting, & I dare say if you wanted to leave for a week or so, & return later he w^d not make much trouble about it - only add a trifling per week - You will be glad to have the school work over & feel free - Has anything been said about next year if you are going on - I w^d advise you to be very careful about putting everything in order now before you leave - so that you c^d perhaps not need to be back on the exact beginning - a week in the lovely country is THE WOODSTOCK INN WOODSTOCK VERMONT worth a great deal -

I am delighted with the picnicing idea & hope you will continue it - when I return. I have always felt that we did not make full use of our beautiful mountain - Some day I must bring you here to see this lovely country - though I do not think it is any finer, if as fine as Glen Sutton, except for the trim, old village with its aristocratic air & old usages - you w^d love the hills at either place.

I am just going to the library to return a book, some sentences of which I enclose for Clare - - As she sh^d read it, I like the keen clear view he takes of many historical facts that are very much glossed over, or unfairly used, by many authors.
Haukells sh^d so clearly what veritable monsters, patronized arts & letters - & men education, were builders of fine churches: etc - The old Jekyll & Hyde - question - I suppose I rather think that you will want to go home Friday or Sat - but she must settle tomorrow - Today the English
