

the dearest - I trust
are to be pitied
Eric is kept lonely sorrowfully &
with love to all Con. - Mother & Mary
Laird - little girl -

Already it seems quite a long time since you left, & the house is very quiet, we have succeeded in cleaning out - the nursery & the two little rooms
all the beds have gone down stairs - & basket after basket - of papers & mess of all kinds has been taken downstairs.
Father is quite knocked up with his hard day yesterday, so he has not got on far with the pre-well. I have plenty of cream & eggs - the one all got - stopping I say - I must is not to be easily had, the cream will take its place - Keeping you can plain get - by sending to the of Palmer is not - or send - get to the time to being you our needs always changes so much I ask rarely about the but I will I would = if it does not - come

The day has been very hot - The I remember the children to night - I was - I almost forgot to give thanks for the many great things = The Lord children are over the years your dear little self, I hope you will be able to find time to point out the lacunae as they come on your mind - by no means the less you ask Mrs Tucker if the above papers are safe & in good order & don't make too big a pile - I hope & expect will bring in them now & not months with the I am going to send a small parcel of "subjects" by Mrs Fleet on Monday as soon as you are in order by & it will be here as meet out of your as you can, for she was out looking

Preparations at the other house - Also the paperers have not - come - Bad news -

Some bad person has apparently put cotton-
wool in my ink bottle & every time I take a dip my pen comes back
like a brush -

We miss you all ever so much & there are no messengers to get anything I fear we shall have nothing done properly till we get back to you again -

I hope you will remember to love one another every day & all day long & do be careful not to take cold or do anything that is a risk - I don't
