I am sure write kindly to her, I too have written, for she & her sister must feel very much alone. I don't think I quite like my ciphers to write such a letter if I were dead - but I dare say she c^d not help it - I fancy the mother was a great treat to the girls, & they certainly had marked very hard for her.

When you write you must tell me all about what better idea of how you go on - Father came yesterday morning - & told us all about

I have just received Miss Baber's letter, please thank her for it - It is a great comfort to me to feel that she is happy & well & over good. I please out you are well being, how ever you are you would not say otherwise - I do not wish to deny the fact - you are true & will see that I never had leave you

Aunt-Eva & the two dear little cousins - Dr says Selma really is full of mischief. We have talked so much that I really don't seem to remember anything special - He has gone off on a tour of inspection, down to the valleys & around about & I think very likely he will go over the Int^l & see the places there - He in-Tredwell - who I think I w^d like to see Eric - Dr says the greatest N. Y. doctor I'd not precise him too highly - Eric has been better these two last days than

a very bad day before that & I am taking the greatest care of him - He has so very little strength.

I am so thankful to have Father here - he is delighted with the country here
