My dearest - Clare,

I saw that your second telegram reached me yesterday - after you left I suddenly thought - that father must have directed the U.S. people to remind my letters to Paris, I found they had no telephone, so I did not send a message till Tuesday morning, by U.S. W. but - so far I have had no news & only hope that in the hurry he has not - also forgotten. I sh^d think that you remained w^d get - here soon.

We have quite cool weather today, after the rain, but growing warmer - it promises that rain tomorrow & next day. I shall long to hear news of you all ere - There is a story for Bernard - rocks beyond the Pt. is true. Several reports were about that. My & have a photograph time all of you & always to escape often their cut will slip - about the share to my The telephone has rung too much although today = the other happy spots well & a getting rather rather nervous I had him out the above today which is a relief to both of us = I'd - was he sleep & work more heartful & peaceful than any previously, I also saw - I do hope that soon we will be allowed to again see that a the 3rd summer ~~that~~ as the family, that I have been kept back from going with you - I hope you will find a strong link to the hospital & successful as a mother the little one & if possible has been visited & long for by his ~~mother~~

Conrad saw a big boy get off the electric car, & when he went a few steps he turned & put his hands to his nose as the conductor - but alas! the conductor was young, & quick of anger & foot; he sprang after the boy, dipping from the street a full handful of mud & rubbed it over his face, then wiped his hands on the conductor's jacket, & was on his way & away, leaving her heavily blushing. I think, in the witness I send today is the story of the boy who came home late, because of a mud curticle, it is on boy's page & should be read to B G.

You had better get Lucky to try the joint for you & Carol to put it in order if need be - The man you & Bebevel saw as possible to better for you, only don't leave the share share while there is no help at hand - You might try fishing & see if what have heard about fish off the

By his arrangements, do sympathize, I will say all you can - of your benevolence & do believe by your noble philanthropic views - I can have no fears for it - you will surely influence with me, I am sure - both young, when you can only get - by helping - I'll do as little but that I should I'll do a parcel on the safe side, I think it is but I will safely keep for you - I'm I trust - is trying to be successful & a help:

Much love dear from Mother
