Dear Bernard

It is not very long till you will be coming home Poppy is counting on the calendar every day to see how many more days it will be till you come home. Mother suggested we should get little Christmas tree for Margaret Rita Dawson & Poppie & put it in

1 2 buckle your shoe the middle of the table with all the presents ^{and} it. I thought that you could possibly get one out there & perhaps I could get some ornaments to put on it because I do not think Margreat has ever seen one before. (try and get one). It is below zero to day I have not been out at all because I have had a slight cold but Conrad said it was.

I am reading a book now which is called the lonely Island it is about the muteness of the country it is simply lovely have to stop now because tea is ready as good bye from Lois

P.S. I hope you will be able to read this letter. We stop lessons on the Friday before Christmas the same day as you
