Winnipeg with Ruth

Dearest Will,

Your letter was a pleasure & so neatly written & certainly you are getting some idea of composition also. In our business community, the power of writing a good letter is invaluable might I suggest one improvement - make the tails of your p's & q's a little longer. The two p's often suggest h's. In other words I quote to you and say - "mind your p's & q's"

I am sorry about my jaundice taking no outing. but - keep your eyes & ears open & something may turn up Certainly I intended you to get your dollar a month. But - as your known funds have been very short & really I forgot to speak to Clara about it, just as well perhaps as have some will be saved up - & you will be able to do some thing ing - The shops here are chammed with endless streams of people you wd think Comarras wd be the day - & the Post-office is a right - Series of patient people waiting before the V. C. delivery wickets all hoping for word from friends, & one can see by their faces that the loved ones must be Secods & Italicans & those central European races. - & at the office where money is sent you see crowds at any hour of the day sending money off - & parcels - the parcels, & such queer looking ones - It quite dices out to see so much love & remembrance - as the french say

"C'est l'amour l'amour qui fait le monde a ronde"

I have got my Pullman ticket for next Saturday evening - that sh^d bring me to Ottawa on Monday afternoon - & home on Wed.

ness day - That leaves you young people to make all the arrangements - which I am sure you will be able to do. & I will be the visitor.

I am fasting this afternoon. & one year later later, I wonder if we will precede the other - let us know -

I must go to market a beautiful evening sky - & white world - to go out into N. feet - had a pleasant letter from Victor - he likes his new position & sees good fortune ahead.

Much love

Mother
