

on to Clare - & you shall see it² So mainly thanks for your letter - you, are always find new conquests to make in the life of the Spirit - There is no need to weep like Alexander the 1st, that there were no more worlds to conquer - The following of Christ - can go on & on, till the eternal things are his.
But - the path of the just shall shew more & more till the perfect day" I think it means a man here begins to walk as the night - picking his steps, as he gazes the sky begins to lighten then the maintenance steps, & later the way he walks, & last - he has the full day, when he can run without risk walk fast & not - tire - That is true picture - of our N. Christian life - & a beautiful one & comforting.

Tell me if you like any of Talier's Hymns & don't let the book I have just got it out from England.

How odd I am, to get some provisions for my small family - it is quite difficult to get nice vegetables, best fruit in plenty.

Much love has been I wd change knees with you if I cd but my stiff joints wd not be a good exchange in the long run.

Let me know if I cd get you anything special I wonder if any one cd teach you backgammon it is a fine game. Have you the marks on the back of your checker board?
