Dear Clare & all,

You have all your family about you now & I trust - they are good & helpful & submit to your judgment. I wish you w^d telegraph when you get this & let me know if all is really going right - with you far I can go down any day after Monday - but rather hate to leave father. I have always considered your children first - but now that you are able to do for yourselves. I am not going to desert him so, any where Con. fell badly at Gung before Ben came back & I was sorry about it - but really with only Lillie & so much going on, it was needful to close up somehow, & we got on faster now the young gentlemen are away.

They say it is hot but I don't find it at all uncomfortable - your room looks lovely & white & dainty & I hope you will have many happy days in it.

Father is hard at work reading A. A. papers 120 of them he did not intend to do this this year but the $25.00 he wants to pay up Kullie's trip so you see how it fares for the poor papers - you just all ought to remember how his hard work goes into your good times, & ought to try & quit it the other way as soon as possible.

Such a beautiful rain last night - & heavy showers lately, every thing lonely, we went ed, the North a little way - & sat there.

The Hunt go down Tuesday & when he one of the last of September.

So we has our voices whether that is giving or well - as not - & again - I don't see the a piece has considerable hours on very limited - The labor of the carpenter just - when their was not - next in fact small piece kept - and to see at a time & the best - whatever of -
