

J. E. MCINTYRE,
~~GEORGE H. MACKIE,~~
MANAGER.

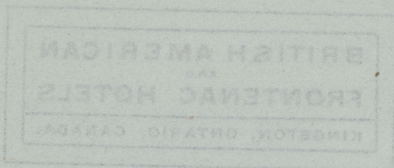

BRITISH AMERICAN
AND FRONTENAC HOTELS
KINGSTON, ONTARIO, CANADA.

TWENTY-FIVE
SAMPLE ROOMS

KINGSTON, Oct. 17th 1902

1902
Re Conrad at R.M.C.
7
My dear Clare,

As you may see from the above I am at Kingston having come up yesterday (Thanksgiving Day) to see Conrad. He spent the afternoon and evening with me and evidently enjoyed the change of diet. There seems to be a good deal of monotony about the meals at the R.M.C. and Conrad as you know cannot hear Sago pudding. There is usually apple pie

but the senior men appropriate it and the recruits never get any.
The change effected in Con in so short a time is marvellous. He is no longer round-shouldered and has already acquired the military bearing. He has to part his hair at the side (a great improvement) & looks very handsome in his uniform. On the whole he has not had a very bad time, and the

J. E. MCINTYRE,
~~SECRETARY~~
MANAGER.

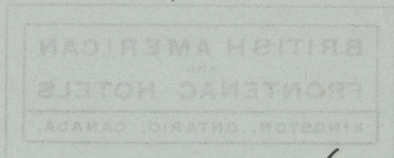

BRITISH AMERICAN
AND FRONTENAC HOTELS
KINGSTON, ONTARIO, CANADA.

TWENTY-FIVE
SAMPLE ROOMS

KINGSTON, 190.....

fact of his being on the football team saves him from a great deal of fussing which he would otherwise have. He has had examinations this week and so far as I can learn seem to have done well.

The weather is lovely up here and we had a long walk yesterday afternoon. This morning I called upon Col. Reade, the "Commandant" & found him a very pleasant man. Prof. Martin whom I was particularly anxious to see is out of town and I have to return to Montreal.

in about an hour.

The Carruthers continue to be very kind to Cor. He was there for lunch yesterday and is again invited for dinner & tea on Sunday.

We were glad to hear that you liked Woodstock and the "Inn". Mother enjoyed her stay there exceedingly. Lunch is ready & I must now write more. Excuse this hurried scribble and with kindest remembrances to grandmama & Uncle Rankine believe me Yours aff. Father.