Dearest Clara,

So many thanks for your letting us know how you all go on. I hope you have not fetched any special worries, my love. We have been received here with open arms, included as the Sargents. Sunday at Dr Chelton dinner, the Benfolds were there - & Mr & Mrs Birson came in after (Duff's breakfast) we are to take early dinner today with the Sargents & call on old Mrs Brewster at 5. I take tea with the Bristols whom I have not seen. The whole town here is so pleased at what one is accustomed to, only the field & dairy larger as compared the Brierley. We went over Byers' Hall which is very fine, everything of the best - the very specially ordered from India, & a great deal of oak travelling - but - nothing showy The one to Philadelphia was simple & magnificent - but we thought a little glaucous -

We are both feeling very sorry at the possibility of missing you, but - father seemed so happy here & every one so glad to see him & as he suggested staying till Monday, & I don't like travelling Sunday, we have decided to leave Monday & sh^d be at home 7.25 - A.M.

I w^d like to also give some little tips to Florence as to things she w^d be interested in I might not think of going to -

We really have had a splendid time - & Ruth has had a good glance into some things. This is the thing Bernau wants, to realize the importance of knowing & doing when he is young. We all educational things and so returned & values, & certainly enlarged - how I shall be glad to be from again - I only say not to have of us at - hand to take you are his - by his - as is - comes back to us whether voluntary give - when you factory are proper - which does not to see another
