My dear Clara,
Your letter
has not yet been answered, although it reached me safely
some weeks ago.
I have to thank you
for your very pretty
and ingenious little blocking book, which I received not long ago,

in the Mediterranean.
I shall, I dare say,
find something
worth writing about
at some of the many interesting

places at which we purpose calling
I hope you will be especially
all sincerely
passed.

Please to thank your mother for her letter, to which I shall not have time to reply

this week as I have a number of letters to write.

All good wishes for a very happy & successful New Year -

Your affectionate uncle,
J. Parkin
