

Thursday V. M.

My dearest Clare,
I was so happy
to hear you were all well After the leaving behind I felt most anxious about Grandma - father said she was so distressed but now I imagine Mrs Turkey had every thing in apple-pie order & that mother took kindly to her quiet, serene, nice ways & I have much faith in Kate for getting things settled - & I hope your pet piece has been left behind - I will not worry you, I have great hopes from an. out of door,

The opening room captured I don't want them all finished at once.
Must leave to all my dear kins especially the only man of the house

Travelling

Another

Letters from mother when she was in detained by measles

1891

life, I recommend the new hammock I mean
of mind & body - Mrs Inglis will likely come with father - As he has also asked Dr Brown & Dr Shepherd - it will be a party w^{ch} est-ces-good fun I think.
To which w^d you rather resign your room?

Ruth has done very well - & the teachers thought her work had been so steadily good that she as well as Myra got a certificate of merit which w^d please her

Con was second
but had not a very high percentage - I am so glad for it - will encourage him for another year =

Tomorrow I hope to have them back again - Uncle George is perhaps going down Saturday to Halifax. As likely I shall go that day - though unless permission is giving need to stay for the Jubilee - & about winter school - that - but I wonder if the children w^d bring for their clothes, unless I as Kate were here - & I hate to hurry her back about - make any other preparation for me - but all take as much pleas as possible = Put away the tea w^{ch} left - the one covered in my room & the brown cloth, & cover the