My dear Claire, I was so grieved for you all when I heard last Saturday of your dear mother's death and yet knowing how ill she had been & how much she had suffered, I felt that even while your tears fell you could be only glad & thankful that she was out of it all.

* "22- Home with the Lord:"

O so sweet-remories you all have to dwell upon with grateful hearts of a glorious, tender & just another who lived amongst you as a warm & living Christian, who manifested her perfect-trust in the God our Father of our Lord Jesus Christ in the true fear & fear of whom she so faithfully trained you.

And the separation is only for a little while, when "He that shall come, will come, bringing with Him those who have "fallen asleep" & gathering us & them together to meet our Lord in the air, so united, ever to His again, we & they shall be forever with Him

"who loved us & gave Himself for us"

"Who died that we might live Who lives that we with Him may reign."

Oh! how sweet & abundant the consolations of the Gospel are, with what healing power they come to our bleeding hearts, amidst life's sorrows & separations!

To you & your sisters and brothers dear Elsie, I offer
