

I read remain, supposed to be an altar for human sacrifice - The old old church of St. Cybi (Kibi) I also saw, it dates back to 500 or something & some think part of the walls belong to an older Roman temple which w^d take it back to the fourth century at least.
There is an old fortified camp on Holyhead but made by Carwallen - whose date I don't know but he fought with the incoming Roman.

We were sketching part of Prest yesterday, & in that bay now under water, was an old old chapel - & Mr. Allen says he has found human bones in the sand at low tide drifted from the old church yard - Uncle W. has come back today to stay over Sunday - I hope we may have to hear that all was going on well at home, & that you to have Mrs. Cooper for the summer, she is so obliging & pleasant & quite a good cook, I think.

When she was at the house before, she was not asked to cook much, but she seemed to know. Another small matter you must not omit, is to see to the children's tea - at home I always have cake or rolls made for them when they are made for ours & berries also must be appreciated for them.
They have eggs if they like, also Agda can make them comfortable without much trouble, but you had better take or look more families who are unaccounted.

& then - Chase is handy also. I only hope there was all love & it is to have any relations with interesting Curulch - a real better weather tomorrow, for it is chillsome in wet weather, though there is a fire in the hall & in the drawing room.

I shall want to hear about Woffie's birthday - I have seen a fine little book about the Coronation, with pictures, which I shall try & get on our return to L. Paul & Lee had a note from poor Mrs Redpath, very heart-broken over the news of Peter R.'s death.
I had no idea that he was so ill as that, & I don't know what will become of all the Inman's money, & money now.
You will enjoy the quiet, for you seem to have been working very hard at designing, & house-keeping both father & you seem much pleased with your management, so you must be doing very well, perhaps you wd like to keep it all together now?
I hope to go to Edinburgh the week after next - then back to L. Paul

This 10 days is to be all of Saalt Favor, for Aunt Eva as well as me, for Mrs Atkin Blauvelt & Co, are to be here through June & the house is let through July & August Peter & his family will occupy the cottage for six weeks through the summer, & the farmer move into some new rooms over the coach house. So very likely Aunt E. & I will take some short trips. There is a boat-ride from Chester up the river said to be very pretty. & other places have been spoken of - now the children have their big garden at Rock Ferry & chickens & so on, they are very well off. & it is all new to them still.

Grace & Selvia always wake up early, as they go to bed so early, but are not allowed here to get up till 8 o' which is hard, so they are industriously reading the gospels, Selvia has my John - breakfast is at 9 o' dinner at 1.30 tea 4-5 & supper 8 o' = we were eating it by
