

Smart - the worst fault - It is when you need a bit of advice, that it seems so achingly far away from you - Glad to hear that your passage is taken - Aunt E. did not say if Miss Blake was going what say you about Silvia & Charles you have not seen her yet.

Don't forget to let me know if you have enough for your passage and let me know in time to send it - money if you need it - & if not in time harrowed from Aunt E. not to - Aunt E. sent to us $100.00 from her account here which she thought would be plenty for her two girls' trips for this summer - so it does not look as if she was very flush of money -

I have just received a P. C. from Mrs Virel, showing me her beautiful house a real old world home.
I am truly glad to be in touch with these relatives again - the last time I saw Minnie Harris (Mrs Virel) it was at Inelis & Clare was the baby - or no! too Ruth was the baby I think she was a pretty girl with a beautiful fresh complexion
- I Mrs Scott, is a dear money can be little object to them I sh^d think. I have always heard they had an exceptionally happy home, & that they were also God-fearing people. Mrs V. is of a french Sanguinet family I believe.

What a grand thing for you to see my little Colonel & you & you will have a glimpse of the noble Scottish hills that make a scotch heart- throbe. Have you a scotch heart? Love Mother
