Halifax - Nova Scotia.

2<sup>d</sup> January 1855.

Sir

The Attorney General of Nova Scotia, Mr Young, having acquainted me of your having accepted an invitation that has been made to you by some friends in England to offer yourself as a Candidate for a Professorship of Natural History I can assure you that you have my best wishes on the occasion, and I hope your efforts may meet with the success, which your abilities well deserve; for I am confident from your conduct during the three years you filled the office of Superintendent of Education in this Province, you will gain additional credit in the new sphere of duties, which this new appointment, should you be successful in obtaining it, may open for you.

I am

Sir

Yours faithfully -

J. G. P. Le Marchant

Certificate
