

From Sir J. G. Le Marchant. Knt. &c. Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia.

(Copy)

Government House, Halifax, Nova Scotia,
2d January 1835.

The Attorney General of Nova Scotia, Mr Young, having acquainted me of your having accepted an invitation that has been made to you by some friends in England to offer yourself as a candidate for a Professorship of Natural History; I can assure you that you have my best wishes on the occasion, and I hope your efforts may meet with the success which your abilities well deserve; for I am confident, from your conduct during the three years you filled the office of Superintendent of Education in this Province, you will gain additional credit in the new sphere of duties which this new appointment, should you be successful in obtaining it, may open for you.

I am

Sir

Yours faithfully

(Signed) J. Gaspar Le Marchant.

Mr. J. G. de Meuron, President of the Board of Directors, Montreal, 24th January 1855.

(Copy)

Government House, Halifax, Nova Scotia,
24 January 1855.

The Attorney General of Nova Scotia, Mr. Jones, having acquainted me of your having accepted our invitation that has been made to you by your friends in England to offer yourself as a candidate for a seat in the House of Commons (England); I can assure you that I have no objection to your doing so, and I am sure that your efforts will be successful, and I am confident that you will obtain a seat in the House of Commons during the three years for which the office of Representative of Education in the Province of Nova Scotia is held in the new sphere of duties which the new appointment demands for the successful in obtaining it, may open for you.

Dr. J. G. de Meuron

Yours faithfully,
J. G. de Meuron

(Signed) J. G. de Meuron

McGILL UNIVERSITY
ARCHIVES
NO. 1463
7