Dear Sir

I am about preparing for Press, for circulation in the United Kingdom, a pamphlet upon Novascotia as a field for emigration. It would add much to the value of the work - if it happens to have any value - if it were accompanied by a suitable map. Will you have the kindness to inform me if any of your small maps of Novascotia, such as that contained in the "Handbook &c. of Novascotia", are now procurable; and if so, at what rate per hundred? That, I think, would just suit me.

I may add that if you have any ideas to throw away, upon the subject that I have named, I will be glad to receive them.

I have the honour to be

Your obed<sup>t</sup> servant
